Dear colleagues,

I am pleased that many of you were able to attend the DFA Women's Symposium Virtual Event Series which took place over the past month and a half. The common theme for the series was Career Visioning; the different sessions featured information on what career visioning is, discovering and owning your strengths, and supporting each other on that journey.

I am excited to announce that we are continuing our women leadership development by launching the DFA Lean In Network which will provide opportunities for skills development, networking, inspiration, and support to all women within DFA. Please view the flyer for monthly session details and registration information.

In addition, by the end of today, you will have access to the DFA Lean In Network's SharePoint site, where you can access resources, interact with coworkers, and stay informed about future events. You will also receive an email from Yammer confirming that you have been added to the chat group on the SharePoint site.

Please email WithUForU@uci.edu with any questions.

Sincerely,

Ronald S. Cortez, JD, MA
